Warminster Symphony Orchestra Presents “Holiday Magic” Saturday, December 1, 2018, at 8 p.m.

On Saturday, December 1, 2018, Warminster Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Joseph Lovecchio, music director and conductor, will usher in the holiday season with a concert sure to please the entire family.

On the program is holiday music including “The Bells of Christmas,” “Candles and Dreidles,” “Sleeper’s Wake” selections from “The Nutcracker,” as well as many more traditional and contemporary holiday favorites.

Featured are the winners of our Young Artist Competition, cellist Katina Pantazopoulos, age 11, playing “Allegro Appassionata” by Camille Saint Saens’ and violinist Kristy Chen, age 15, performing the 3rd movement of Camille Saint Saens’ violin concerto No. 3.

With so much holiday spirit at this concert, Santa is sure to make an appearance!

The concert will be held at William Tennent Auditorium, 333 Centennial Road, Warminster, PA 18974. Ample free parking is available.

As in years past, we remember those neighbors in need and ask that all attending bring a personal-care item to the concert (soap, shampoo, toothpaste, individual toothbrush, deodorant) for donation to the Food Pantry at St. John’s Lutheran Church, Hatboro, Pa. The pantry is open to all in need.

Adult tickets are $22 at the door.

Advance tickets ($20) can be purchased (Cash or check, please) at: John S. Cryan Jewelers, 673 2nd Street Pike, Southampton, PA and M&H Custom Framing & Gallery, 373 York Road, Warminster, PA or through the website. Visit www.WarminsterSymphony.org or call 215-672-9650.

This concert only – students and pre-school children admitted free!
