Warminster Symphony Orchestra Marks 51st Season

March 10, 2018 concert features Julian Bliss, world-renowned clarinetist.

The Warminster Symphony Orchestra continues to grow — both in stature and audience members who fill the seats in the William Tennent Auditorium four times a year. At each concert, they experience the great orchestral masterworks of the past and thrill to the artistry of contemporary guest soloists.

Led by Maestro Joseph Lovecchio, the Orchestra has presented guest soloists of national and international celebrity, including Broadway stars Ciaran Sheehan, Gay Willis, and Kimilee Bryant; Philadelphia Orchestra soloists William and Gloria dePasquale, Kimberly Fisher, and violin soloist, Ellen dePasquale; world-famous trumpet virtuoso Allen Vizutti; Grammy-nominated artist Jenny Oaks Baker; and The United States Army Trumpets.

The tradition of presenting world-renowned musical artists continues with the March 10, 2017 concert featuring clarinetist Julian Bliss performing clarinet concertos and the music of Benny Goodman.

“Julian Bliss is an inspiration to clarinetists and music lovers of all ages. We are incredibly fortunate, that through the generosity of the Conn-Selmer Corporation, we are able to have one of the most dynamic young soloists in the world perform in a local venue that is both quite affordable and easily accessible. I encourage everyone to attend and also invite young musicians you know to join you.”

“As a community arts resource, the Warminster Symphony Orchestra offers diverse programming, exceptional guest soloists, and an ensemble of dedicated musicians that brings the universal language of music to people of all ages,” states Maestro Lovecchio. “Come to a concert and experience it for yourself.”
