

The Warminster Symphony Orchestra

presents

The Clarinet Wizardry of Julian Bliss

Saturday
March 10th
8 PM

World-famous British clarinetist Julian Bliss joins the Warminster Symphony Orchestra in a concert of clarinet concertos with a bit of Benny Goodman.

Excelling as a concerto soloist, chamber musician, jazz artist, master class leader, and tireless musical explorer, he has inspired a generation of young players.

He has been featured with international orchestras the world over, from the Sao Paolo Symphony, The Chamber Orchestra of Paris and the Auckland Philharmonica, to the BBC Philharmonic Orchestra, the London Philharmonic and the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, leaving audiences in awe of his clarinet wizardry.

Julian Bliss's appearance made possible by the Conn-Selmer Corp., manufacturer and distributor of Leblanc and Selmer Paris clarinets.

"All Gershwin" Featuring Clipper Erickson

Saturday
May 12th
8 PM

Pianist Clipper Erickson joins Warminster Symphony Orchestra in a concert of "All Gershwin." The program will include Gershwin's Cuban Overture, Variations on "I Got Rhythm," Concerto in F, and Selections from "Porgy and Bess."

"Like a true heroic pianist, Erickson approached Liszt with power, precision and Romantic abandon ... a take-no-prisoners rendition." The Washington Post.
