

WARMINSTER SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
Joseph Lovecchio, Music Director and Conductor presents
“Heart and Soul”
with
JENNY OAKS BAKER
Sat., Oct. 16, 2021 8 p.m.
William Tennent Auditorium
333 Centennial Road, Warminster, Pa. 18974

An evening of classical, rock, inspirational and film favorites performed by “America’s Violinist” Jenny Oaks Baker, together with Matthew Baker, 14, and Sarah Baker, 16.

Warminster Symphony Orchestra will present Jenny Oaks Baker in an encore concert on October 16, 2021, entitled “Heart and Soul.” Opening the 55th season of the Warminster Symphony Orchestra, the concert features a varied program with selections such as the Brahms Double Concerto, Bach Prelude, music from Beauty and the Beast, and Copland Rock Suite, among others.

Jenny Oaks Baker is a Grammy-nominated, Billboard No. 1 artist and performer who has released 18 albums to date. She began playing the violin at age four, and made her solo debut at eight years of age in 1983. She received her Master of Music Degree from Julliard School in New York and her Bachelor’s degree in violin performance from the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia.

“I am thrilled to be coming back to perform with the wonderful Warminster Symphony Orchestra,” said Jenny Oaks Baker. “There is something about Pennsylvania that sets it apart; I feel a special connection to the Philadelphia area since my days as a student at Curtis. And, to perform the Brahms Double Concerto for violin and cello with my daughter, Sarah, is a dream come true. Additionally, my son Matthew, 14, will be playing the 3rd movement of the classical guitar concerto No. 1 by Castelnuovo - Tedesco.”

“The Warminster Symphony Orchestra is overjoyed that Jenny Oaks Baker will once again grace our stage,” said Joseph Lovecchio, Music Director and Conductor. Her remarkable stage presence and technical skill is so memorable, it is still a favorite of our long-time subscribers.”

Advance tickets are $25 and are available at www.warminstersymphony.org. Tickets may also be purchased (cash or check only, please) at John Cryan Jewelers, 673 Second Street Pike, Southampton, Pa., (215) 357-8850; and M&H Framing, 318 York Road in Warminster, Pa., (215) 443-0968. Price at the door is $30, $10 student with ID. Additional information: 215-672-9650. Visit www.warminstersymphony.org for concert information and to link to jennyoaksbaker.com.

