

HOLLY GASH

Internationally acclaimed soprano Holly Gash has graced stages in the U.S., Italy, and throughout Central America since 2003. She is thrilled to be making her encore presentation with Warminster Symphony since her debut in 2022. Ms. Gash, currently residing in New York, has performed over 30 leading roles in operas and musicals. Favorites include Tosca, Norma Desmond from Sunset Boulevard, Nedda in I Pagliacci, Adriana Lecouvreur, as well as several Verdi roles including Elvira in Ernani and Leonora in Il Trovatore. Ms. Gash is a frequent guest soloist for Newtown Chamber Orchestra, New Jersey Lyric Opera and the Amici Opera of Philadelphia. She's been the featured soloist in many oratorios and recital collaborations in the Philadelphia area, New Jersey, and New York.

Please visit www.hollygash.com for more information.